RESOLUTION NUMBER 5 - 1952

WHEREAS, Thomas D. Telford, has been required by Public Housing Administration to elect between his position as City Manager of the City of Milwaukie and Administrator of Clackamas County Housing Authority:

AND WHEREAS he believes that his best interests would be served by resigning from his office of City Manager of the City of Milwaukie,

AND WHEREAS, his resignation has heretofore been tendered to the City Council of the City of Milwaukie to take effect March 31, 1952

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the resignation of Thomas D. Telford as City Manager of the City of Milwaukie, be accepted to take effect as of March 31, 1952; and that such resignation is accepted with regret by the City of Milwaukie; and that the City of Milwaukie through its Council, wishes to express its deep appreciation for the services rendered to it during the time he has held such office; and this Council wishes to express its opinion that the two offices held by Mr. Telford have in no way been inconsistant; and that the two offices being combined in one man has been mutually helpful to the Clackamas County Housing Authority and to the City of Milwaukie; and that the best of relations has existed between Clackamas County Housing Authority and the City of Milwaukie; and that there has never been any conflict in the interests of the two organizations.

Adopted this 24th day of March, 1952.
