Gamba on May ballot for Mayor

Councilor Mark Gamba will be the only candidate listed for Milwaukie Mayor on May's special election ballots. The City Recorder accepted petitions for Mayor until 5 p.m., March 10, 2015, and Gamba is the only resident who filed.

Gamba, or a write-in candidate, when elected in the May 19, 2015 election will fill the unexpired term vacated by Jeremy Ferguson, which expires at the end of 2018.

Ferguson resigned in January

Quiet Zones go into effect

On May 1st, the new rail quiet zone goes into effect in downtown Milwaukie at SE Harrison, Monroe and Washington streets, at 21st Avenue and Adams Street, and at Mailwell Drive. In the quiet zone, light rail and heavy rail train operators are not required to blow their horns as they approach a crossing (although they are allowed to use their horns at their discretion).

- Be safe at the tracks! Expect a train even if you don't hear a horn.

♦ MILWAUKIE'S LOCAL LEADERS ♦

A fine first, First Friday

More than 20 Milwaukie business owners and volunteers came together on March 17th to start planning the fifth season of First Friday events that kickoff May 1st.

The series draws hundreds of folks to the downtown area every first Friday evening of the month between May and October to enjoy food, live music, drink, art, dance and much more.

The May 1st event promises to start the season with a bang.

The City is celebrating the completion of Phase II improvements to Milwaukie Riverfront Park at 4 p.m. (more information at www.milwaukieoregon.gov), and the New Century Players have their opening night of Witness for the Prosecution at the Masonic Lodge at 7:30 p.m. (more information at www.newcenturyplayers.org).

Also, award winning author, Nan Hunt, will host a reception at City Hall from 5 to 7 p.m. along with a collective of artists celebrating travel, our global community, and the strength of women, in honor of Nan's newest book, The Map and the Perfection of Distance.

As in First Fridays past, there will be art and food vendors, a beer garden and live music across from City Hall, and businesses and City Hall will host local and regional artists.

For the full schedule of First Friday events planned for May 1st and all future events, visit www.firstfriday.com.

Making budgets stretch

This month's Councilor Column is written by Councilor Karin Power. To contact Karin, call 503-786-7513 or email her at powerk@milwaukieoregon.gov.

As a newcomer to Milwaukie years ago, I looked forward to exploring my new town. I rode my bike downtown for our packed First Friday events, and on summer Sundays, delighted in the vast array of Farmers Market flower bouquets and used books in the City Hall firehouse bay.

In my New Jersey hometown, we only had a few events each year that neared the scale of Milwaukie's: the Fireman's Fair, a few holiday parades, and Sidewalk Sale days. These annual events marked the seasons of my childhood, and as a kid, gave me a strong sense of character and community in my town. Now, as an adult, I see Milwaukie through my friends' children's eyes as they clap for our Christmas Ships and watch, wide-eyed, as the Davis Graveyard team parades through Main Street under amazing and elaborately scary umbrellas.

Our extensive and varied volunteer-run events are great fun, and they are a hallmark of Milwaukie's strong community. And as one of your new City Councilors, I've delved into our city budgets over the past few months and learned how valuable this community service is – in real dollars. The 700 hours each month that volunteers put in at our Library keep operations running smoothly. Our volunteer First Fridays coordinators, and the Celebrate Milwaukie Inc. board that organizes Farmers Markets, provide Milwaukie with economic incubator spaces for farmers and makers. City boards, Neighborhood Associations, and committees organize our Umbrella Parade, neighborhood concert series, and park cleanups, among others, keeping dollars local and neighborhoods tidy.

These volunteer hours matter to our city and our kids. If you have a passion for our town and have a few hours to spare, I ask you to help lend a hand. Send the city an email, or check out www.milwaukieoregon.gov/citymanager/volunteer, and together, we can help Milwaukie thrive.

The Wall gaining support

One of the key programs when the traveling Vietnam Memorial Wall visits Milwaukie July 23 - 26 is the Honoring Military Service and Sacrifice parade of Sat., July 25th.

Active members of the military and veterans will march through downtown Milwaukie giving citizens an opportunity to honor their service. Vehicles from the Oregon Military Museum will be on display, and other attractions are being arranged.

Veteran and military organizations, and community organizations that serve veterans and military personnel are encouraged to take part in the parade.

The City is also seeking volunteers to help with the parades' coordination and planning. To learn more, please contact Community Programs Coordinator Jason Wachs at 503-786-7568 or wachs@milwaukieoregon.gov.

The City Code Corner

Written by Tim Salyers, Code Compliance Coordinator

It's that time of year again when you have to start dusting off those lawn mowers and cutting shears.

There are some ordinances in our City that restrict the height of vegetation in certain areas. For instance, grass, weeds, and wild blackberries are not allowed to be taller than 8 inches in height. Trees and shrubs overhanging the sidewalk below 8 feet and the street below 12 feet must be cut so that pedestrians and vehicles can pass safely.

Finally, for our friends at the fire department, we need to keep a 3 foot radius clear around the fire hydrants, so they can protect all the investments that you and your family have made. If you have any questions, contact me at 503-786-7409 or salyerst@milwaukieoregon.gov.

The Chief's Corner

Written by Steve Bartol, Police Chief

There are two events happening this month I hope you can put on your calendar. The first is Sat., April 11th, at 6 p.m., when the Milwaukie Public Safety Foundation will be holding a fundraising spaghetti dinner at the American Legion to benefit the Milwaukie Police Department's Bikes for Kids Program. The proceeds purchase new bikes and helmets for kids who may not otherwise have access to them.

The second is our annual prescription drug turn-in and document shred day on Sat. April 25th. Just stop by the Police Department anytime between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and we'll help you unload.

We hope to see you at both of these great events.

Moving Forward project in gear

The Planning Commission recommended approval of the downtown Milwaukie plan and code amendment package on March 10th. The first Council hearing is scheduled for May 5th and will hopefully be in effect by early summer 2015. These amendments address how new development looks and functions and the process required for approval.

The Planning Commission begins hearings on the Central Milwaukie plan and code amendment package on April 28th. These amendments address allowable uses, development and design standards, and creating connections to and through Central Milwaukie.

Finally, the Neighborhood Main Streets phase that focuses on 32nd and 42nd Avenues kicks off with a project advisory committee (PAC) meeting on April 1st. This phase of the project follows up on the 2012 Neighborhood Main Streets project, which was conducted by a group of graduate students from Portland State University.

Museum opens Curiosities exhibit

Written by Greg Hemer, Milwaukie Historical Society

What do boxing gloves, avocado seed dolls, and a permanent wave machine (right) all have in common?

They are some of the items of our newest exhibit at 3737 SE Adams St. The exhibit is named Curiosities from the Museum's Collections and was funded by a donation from Jeff Odegaard.

Curiosities from the Museum's Collections highlights some of the artifacts that have been donated to the Milwaukie Historical Society over the decades. When the historical society was first organized in 1936, it initially focused on public programming. Eventually, the society began gathering artifacts and displayed these at the Ledding Library, the Milwaukie Masonic Lodge, and the old City Hall on Monroe Street.

The collections grew significantly with the opening of a stand-alone museum in 1975. The historical society and museum now have hundreds of artifacts, relating to local, regional, and statewide history. The artifacts in this exhibit span more than a century of history, from an 1850 tombstone to a souvenir from the 1980 eruption of Mount St. Helens.

Explore the stories behind these unique objects. Many can be studied further in the historical society's research library. Visit Milwaukie Museum on Saturdays and Sundays from 1-5 p.m. to view the newest exhibit.

PASS to extinguish fires

BY FRED CHARLTON, FIRE CHIEF

Clackamas Fire has a number of fire and life safety initiatives that we focus on and this month's is the use of fire extinguishers.

A fire extinguisher is your best defense against small, contained fires that have just begun to burn and can control flames until the fire department arrives.

Every type of extinguisher is designed to fight a certain type of fire and there are four classes which are determined by the type of fuel. Using the wrong fire extinguisher can cause a fire to spread and place you in greater danger.

To use an extinguisher safely, stand eight to ten feet from the fire with your back to an unblocked exit and use the PASS procedure.

- P = PULL THE PIN
- A = AIM AT BASE
- S = SQUEEZE
- S = SWEEP FROM SIDE TO SIDE

Recycle your electronics

The North Clackamas Urban Watersheds Council, in collaboration with EG Metals Inc., the City of Milwaukie and Oak Lodge Sanitary District, will be hosting a Recycling Collection Event on April 25th from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Milwaukie Elks Lodge, 13121 SE McLoughlin Blvd.

Accepted items include old computers, cell phones, electronics, and Christmas lights. For a complete list, visit the story posted on the City's homepage.

City celebrates our water

The Stormwater Division attended this year's Celebrating Water Festival, put on by Clackamas County Water Education Team, on March 17th at Clackamas Community College.

Approximately 540 fourth and fifth grade students from five schools attended the event to see exhibits, demonstrations, and stage shows about water-related issues. Milwaukie Stormwater was one of 18 agencies and non-profit groups exhibiting.

At the City's exhibit, kids got to see how surface waters can be polluted by seemingly innocuous activities and chemicals found in our neighborhoods, when the rain comes and washes them into nearby creeks and streams.

Legion looking for help

A group of dedicated veterans from Milwaukie American Legion Post 180 volunteer Honor Guard services at funeral services, opening ceremonies and other events all around the region, and they are looking for other veterans to join them.

Requests for their services have never been greater. Just recently the small group assisted in five funerals for veterans who died at the Portland VA Hospital. The Milwaukie Legion volunteers a variety of services to honor those that have served honorably in our nation's armed forces.

Some of the services they provide free of charge include: Full Military Honors (folding the American flag, taps, and rifle volley salute) memorial services, flag folding at burial/memorial services, military chaplain services, flag postings, Patriotic dedication services, and patriotic ceremonies.

If you are a veteran, or know of a veteran, who is interested in volunteering, please contact Jerry Craig of Post 180 by phone at 503-723-9988 or email squish5213@comcast.net.

➤ ARDENWALD/JOHNSON CREEK ◀

NEXT MEETING INFORMATION:

TBA DUE TO MEMORIAL DAY • LIZ'S CREATIVE CAFE
BY BRYAN DORR, SECRETARY

Congratulations to Kim Travis who is now Ardenwald-Johnson Creek Neighborhood Association's Public Safety Advisory Committee representative. The NDA nominated Kim at the February regular meeting and was appointed by Milwaukie City Council on March 17th.

Questions about possible parking garage at Tacoma St./Johnson Creek Station were raised in February. TriMet responded, saying the unused contingency funds cannot be used for a parking garage, therefore, the parking garage will not be. The access stairs from Springwater Trail to the bottom of the access path was also cut, which would have saved pedestrians from east walking an extra 0.2 mile.

Spring is here and plants are in bloom once again. This also means upcoming plant sales to continue fundraising for Balfour Park (Check page 4 for details).

We'll have our board elections at the May regular NDA meeting. All positions are up for elections. The May meeting date is to be determined because fourth Monday being Memorial Day. Friends of Tideman Johnson Park work parties are on Sat., April 4th and May 2nd, from 9 a.m. to noon at Tideman Johnson Park.

The latest updates from Ardenwald are always online 24 hours a day, seven days a week at www.Ardenwald.org.

LINWOOD

NEXT MEETING INFORMATION:

THURS., APRIL 9TH, 7 P.M. • LINWOOD ELEM.
BY ZAG PERRY, CHAIR

The Linwood Neighborhood Association is dedicating a Saturday in late August to get together with neighbors. The plan is to beautify Stanley Park, followed by a neighborhood BBQ and community social. This event is intended to be fun for all ages as we work towards improving the aesthetics and function of this 'pesticide free' park. Dates and activities will be proposed and voted on at our next meeting and we would love to have you be a part of this discussion.

Stanley Park is heavily used by our community. It serves as a safe route for many to and from Linwood and Sojourner Schools. Others utilize it to access the sports fields, track and playgrounds after school hours. It has one of the only trash receptacles in the surrounding area which responsible pet owners and others appreciate. If you use this park, how would you like to see it improved? If you don't use this park because it doesn't serve your needs, what ideas do you have?

Linwood NDA is hoping to create an event that provides an opportunity for our community to come together, meet new people, converse with old friends, improve livability.

Please bring your ideas to our next meeting, April 9th at 7 p.m. in the school library. There are only two more meetings until our summer break, and elections will be held at the May 14th meeting.

HECTOR CAMPBELL

NEXT MEETING INFORMATION:

MON., APRIL 13TH, 6:30 P.M. • PSB
BY DAVID ASCHENBRENNER, CHAIR

Spring is here and there are lots of things to do, yard work, sports, community events and planning for the summer. Here are a few things to plan for: Milwaukie Riverfront Park opening on May 1st, First Friday starts May 1st, The New Century Players Production opens May 1st, Sunday Farmers Market starts May 3rd. All this information and more can be found on the Milwaukie Web Site.

But you want to know what is happening in the Neighborhood. So the Monroe Greenway Planning Project had an open house in March and the planning drawings were reviewed by the public. The Moving Forward Project Phase 2, Central Milwaukie, is in the hands of the Planning Commission and Phase 3, the 32nd / 42nd Ave. segment is in the Committee's hands for comment. Railroad Ave. will be repaved this summer so plan on traffic changes during construction. The Milwaukie Museum is open each Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. so come down and learn about Milwaukie History.

And last, the Neighborhood Association is here to help and inform neighbors about their community, we meet on the 2nd Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the Public Safety Building, 32nd and Harrison. Please join us or email us at info@HectorCampbellNDA.org.

LEWELLING

NEXT MEETING INFORMATION:

WEDS., APRIL 8TH, 7 P.M. * LEWELLING ELEMENTARY
BY BRYAN TROTTER, CHAIR

I've always been passionate about environmental issues but like most working parents already volunteering with schools, community groups, or church, my plate is overflowing. It's hard to take on another cause you are passionate about so instead we just try to do the best we can in our personal lives and bring those passions to our local network of peers, colleagues, and volunteer groups.

There are several events this month aimed at trying to make it just a little easier to help the environment. Take time to meet on 8:45 a.m. April 18th at City Hall to participate in a cleanup of downtown and the Johnson Creek confluence.

Help keep dangerous chemicals out of our waterways by dropping off old prescription drugs at the Public Safety building on April 25th or bring your scrap electronics to the Elks Lodge also on the 25th. Encourage one less car by donating that unused bicycle to the police department or attending their fundraising spaghetti dinner on April 11th.

April may be the month we celebrate Earth Day but our community has a host of ongoing, regular activities to help us all make a greater impact on protecting the environment.

If you want to hear about local activities and ways to help the environment in Milwaukie, get added to our email list by contacting me at lewellingtrotter@outlook.com.

LAKE ROAD

NEXT MEETING INFORMATION:

WEDS., APRIL 11TH 6:30 P.M. * ROWE JR. HIGH
BY DEBBY PATTEN, CHAIR

I have been the Chair of Lake Road NDA so long now that I have actually forgotten how long it's been. Being the Chair has given me so many opportunities to learn new things, meet new people, and know a lot more about what's going on in Milwaukie. I am lucky, too, to have a Co-Chair who helps me out and covers for me when I can't make it. Over the years I have had many fellow Officers and others from the City who have supported me and become good friends. Thank you all, by the way.

No, I am not going anywhere; that is, unless someone feels very passionate about taking over the role of Chair in May during our elections. I would be fine with this. Just as I will be fine with continuing on as Chair. It's just that it's spring and I am thinking about how lucky I am to live here and be a part of such a wonderful City.

You may be new to the City and not know about our NDA's. Well, it is an amazing program that exists so residents can be a part of decision-making and have more information about the City they live in. There are countless men and women who give hours and hours of their precious time to make this a better place to live. We have a City government who cares about what we think. It boggles the mind ... and keeps me here in Milwaukie.

ISLAND STATION

NEXT MEETING INFORMATION:

WED., APRIL 15TH, 6:30 P.M. * MILWAUKIE GRANGE
BY GINDY MIGUEL, CHAIR

From east to west the Island Station Neighborhood is really enjoying our green gateway to nature.

From the Trolley Trail to Spring Park, Island Station is showing beautiful signs of spring. Most recently, many of our neighbors were able to combine their time and efforts to restore the Spring Park natural area with a native planting event.

Thank you to the many folks who participated alongside Willamette Riverkeepers, North Clackamas Parks and Recreation Department and North Clackamas Urban Watersheds Council. We also have revived our "Friends of Elk Rock Island" group and are enjoying increased participation in our neighborhood meetings!

We can now be found on Facebook at: www.facebook.com/milwaukieisnda.

HISTORIC MILWAUKIE

NEXT MEETING INFORMATION:

MON., APRIL 13TH, 6:30 P.M. * POND HOUSE
BY DION SHEPARD, CHAIR

At our last meeting we discussed the concept for the Monroe Greenway in the section that is in Historic Milwaukie. There is overwhelming support to eliminate the northbound left turn lane on Hwy. 224 but the neighbors did have concerns about parking reduction on Monroe or diversions that would add traffic to neighborhood streets. We'll review the results of the open house at our April meeting.

The Planning Commission has finished its review of the Moving Forward recommendations for code changes in downtown. You have one more chance to weigh-in on the changes when the city council reviews the planning commission recommendations at its May 5th meeting.

Please help us beautify our downtown on April 18th at the Earth Day event for the many special events that will be hosted by our community. Visit the City website to register.
