Council explores cost-savings opportunity

Milwaukie City Council is weighing the option of recommending a $4 million bond measure for voter approval as a way to save money and retain core services.

If voters approve, general obligation bonds would finance early repayment of the $4 million debt for Milwaukie's share of light rail construction costs. The bond proceeds would refinance and prepay the debt at a lower interest rate (estimated three per cent), saving the City approximately $850,000.

Currently, the debt is being repaid from the City's General Fund, which also supports core services including police protection, library and parks.

Refinancing the debt would allow the City to retain core services.

The bonds would be payable from property taxes. The additional tax is estimated to cost $34 per year for a Milwaukie home with a taxable value of $200,000.

Councilors Mark Gamba and Mike Miller are assigned to lead the City Council's research for the bond measure. In addition to opinion research

Essentials for learning

The aim of the Wichita Center, located just outside Milwaukie on King Road, is simple: to equip kids and families of the North Clackamas School District with the essentials they need so students can come to school ready to learn.

And by essentials, not just the pencils, paper and backpacks the center provides, but the food and clothes it provides so children aren't hungry or cold in the classroom.

All that's involved in meeting that aim is not simple, and is almost entirely dependent on volunteers and donations.

Tina Criswell is one of those volunteers, and she's been helping for about four years. She helps organize the food, clothes, school supplies, household and hygiene supplies that are donated, and provides a gentle and compassionate presence as the families select what they need from the Center's food pantry and Clothe's Closet.

"I try to make the parents feel at ease and get their kids what they need," Tina said.

If you would like to learn more about the many, many, ways you can help the Wichita Center, call 503-353-5663.

Bringing the Wall to town

This month's Councilor Column is written by Councilor Mike Miller. To contact Mike, call 503-786-7513 or email miller@milwaukieoregon.gov.

As I sat in the dentist chair yesterday my thoughts turned to the Milwaukie Daze festival of 2015. One of the big events I'm involved in, along with the Milwaukie American Legion, is bringing the Vietnam Memorial Wall to our community.

The wall memorializes and honors those who lost their lives serving our country in Vietnam. 2015 will mark the 50-year-remembrance of the war. Jerry Craig of the Milwaukie American Legion is a part of the effort to bring the Wall to Milwaukie, and he shared with me the following facts.

THERE ARE 58,267 NAMES NOW LISTED ON THE POLISHED BLACK WALL

THE NAMES ARE ARRANGED IN THE ORDER IN WHICH THEY WERE TAKEN FROM US BY DATE, AND WITHIN EACH DATE, THE NAMES ARE ALPHABETIZED

THE FIRST KNOWN CASUALTY WAS ON JUNE 8, 1956.

39,996 ON THE WALL WERE JUST 22 OR YOUNGER

THERE ARE THREE SETS OF FATHERS AND SONS ON THE WALL

33,103 18-YEAR-OLDS ARE ON THE WALL

FIVE SOLDIERS ON THE WALL WERE 16-YEARS-OLD

ONE SOLDIER, PFC DAN BULLOCK, WAS 15

997 SOLDIERS WERE KILLED ON THEIR FIRST DAY IN VIETNAM

1,448 SOLDIERS WERE KILLED ON THEIR LAST DAY OF TOUR IN VIETNAM

8 WOMEN ARE ON THE WALL - ALL WERE NURSING THE WOUNDED

THE MOST DEATHS ON A SINGLE DAY WAS JAN. 31, 1968 - 245 DEATHS

Students earn tasty treats

To recognize Milwaukie High School students excelling in the classroom Mayor Jeremy Ferguson (far right) handed out the first "Cookies and Milk Campaign" certificates for a free treat at The Painted Lady Coffee House on Nov. 7th.

The campaign is designed to inspire, encourage and recognize exceptional Milwaukie High School students every month of this school year. Each month ten Milwaukie High School Departments nominate a student from that department to enjoy a FREE sweet treat! Students are eligible based off academic performance, improvement, and positive behavior to receive a complimentary, made-from-scratch cookie and ice-cold glass of milk.

BE PREPARED

Here are some Christmas tree safety tips!

- Be sure your live tree is at least 3 feet away from a heat source and you add water daily to the stand.
- NEVER use lit candles near a tree.
- When you leave home or go to bed, TURN OFF the tree lights.
- And if you have an artificial tree, make sure it is fire retardant.

Happy Holidays!

Building Milwaukie

Updates on projects from the Community Development Department

Transportation System Plan (TSP) Update

- The TSP is the City of Milwaukie's long-range transportation plan. City Council formally adopted the updated TSP at its Nov. 19th, meeting.
- The amendments adopted were the product of two public meetings and an Open House, two Planning Commission hearings, and three City Council meetings.
- The outreach was conducted over a 10-month period of time.

Moving Forward Milwaukie: Enhancing our Commercial Districts Project

- At its Dec. 3rd Work Session the City Council will be reviewing draft development concepts for five opportunity sites in Downtown Milwaukie and two opportunity sites in Central Milwaukie (which includes the commercially zoned areas around the Milwaukie Marketplace shopping center).

Quiet Zone Project - 37th Avenue & Oak Street Quiet Zone Improvements

- Construction completed at the end of November.
- The Application for Quiet Zone Approval has been sent to ODOT Rail.
- Staff expects to have Quiet Zone approval around Dec. 31st.

Sidewalk Ramp Enhancement Project

- Sidewalk ramps near public buildings will be reconstructed and brought into ADA compliance.
- At this time, construction is expected to begin Dec. 9th, and last approximately 60 days.

Rain & leaves bad combo

Heavy rains and falling leaves are a bad combination for the City's stormwater system for two major reasons – the leaves clog storm drain grates and create flooding conditions, and the additional runoff carries more pollutants to local waterways.

Here's a couple tips to aid both of these conditions:

- Use a rake to clear storm drains of leaves and debris near your home or business to help reduce flooding. Dispose of the leaves in yard waste containers, compost bins or at the City's leaf drop site (see above), or, spread them over your garden to protect and nourish perennials.
- Call the stormwater department at 503-786-7687 if you spot a clogged storm drain.
- Don't dump ANYTHING into a storm drain. It's not just wrong, it's against the law.
- Don't drain anything - a pool, hot tub, into a storm drain. Send it to the sanitary sewer system via toilet, sink or tub drain instead.

Celebrate the Milwaukie way

Written by Greg Hemer, Design & Landmarks Committee

“December 7th, 1941, a date which will live in infamy, the United States of America was suddenly and deliberately attacked by naval and air forces of the Empire of Japan.” - President Franklin Roosevelt.

The Milwaukie economy during the 20’s and 30’s was based mainly on farming. The biggest crops were flowers, berries, and celery. In fact, in 1924 the celery industry, which included the Meeks Bros., Binn Bros., Takemoto, and Watanabe Bros., cultivated and harvested 4 million plants a year.

What is the connection between these historical facts? It is the most heartfelt, community gift we as Milwaukians should be proud of.

Once America declared war on the Empire of Japan, Japanese, citizens or not of the United States, were directed to “internment” camps to ensure no information was being relayed to the Empire.

The Watanabe’s of Milwaukie were one of those families. They took very little possessions and were carted off to the middle of Idaho for “internment.” Their celery business was done, all that they had worked for, their lives and legacy, swept away by actions not in their control.

But the Citizens of Milwaukie made a promise to the Watanabe’s.

They would keep their celery farm working, so when the Watanabe family came back, the farm would be there for them. And when the Watanabe’s returned near the end of the War, their farm, their homes, and their lives were ready for them to enjoy and prosper.

I cannot think of a better Holiday story than this one. One of helping your neighbors and friends when it is needed the most. So when serving your Holiday dinners, have some celery.

For Milwaukie, it is the truest symbol of a Christmas gift a community can bestow for one of its citizens.

Help the Center

It’s that time of year when the Milwaukie Center is looking for volunteers with excellent telephone skills to help out with its annual Tax-Aide Program.

These volunteers will schedule the appointments that assist seniors, low-income families and disabled persons in receiving free 2013 tax preparation.

If you would like to participate in this important program, contact Judith Kallio, Volunteer Coordinator, at 503-653-8100, or at jkallio@clackamas.or.us.

Drop by the Pond House Books Store

Do your Holiday shopping at the Milwaukie Pond House Book Store and help the Friends of the Ledding Library at the very same time.

The Pond House book store sells highly affordable books, CD’s, DVD’s, and much more, and the proceeds fund Library programs and projects. The store is open Fri., Sat., 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The City Code Corner

A very, very special Code Corner brought to you by Tim Salyers, Code Compliance Coordinator. Sing to the tune of Jingle Bells, for the greatest effect.

*Shoveling through the snow,
On the sidewalk it can not stay,
Take a scoop and throw,
On my yard it lay;*

*Only have four hours,
After the sun gets bright,
Done with the snow showers
Sidewalk no longer white.*

*Oh! That’s the Code.
That’s the Code
That’s the Milwaukie way!*

*O’ what fun it is to abide
So we can work and play – HEY!*

*That’s the Code, that’s the Code
Officers have to say –
‘Shovel and toss that snow aside and enjoy your Holiday!’*

To contact Tim in Code Compliance call (503) 786-7409, or email him at salyerst@MilwaukieOregon.gov.

The Chief’s Corner

After more than 40 years in law enforcement, Chief Bob Jordan retired as Milwaukie Police Chief on Nov. 29th.

“I started out as a police officer in my hometown in New Jersey in November of 1973, have been an Assistant District Attorney in the City of Philadelphia, an FBI guy and Chief (in Milwaukie) for the past five-plus years,” Jordan said. “With 40 years in the business, it is time to say goodbye, and thanks.”

“Bob has worked very hard to develop the excellent relationship that the Department has with the community,” City Manager Bill Monahan said. “He is probably the most accessible and visible police chief that I have known. In the five plus years that he has served the City he has guided the department through many challenging issues.”

Library busy as ever

Like every other month, the Ledding Library offers a full-slate of free programming in December for its kid and adult patrons. To view the full calendar visit: <http://www.MilwaukieOregon.gov/calendar/library>.

Here are some highlighted programs for this month:

"Jack Frost" presented by the Micha-el School Puppeteers: Sat., Dec. 7th, 2-2:30 p.m., Children's Library, A puppet show performance for children 3 & up.

First Saturday Music Series: Chihuahua Desert: Sat., Dec. 7th, 2-3 p.m. Fronted by lead singer/guitarist Mark Cash, this band is playing its own versions of standard rock classics, blended with a flair of Spanish love songs.

Milwaukie Poetry Series with John Sibley Williams: Dec. 11th, 7 p.m. in the Pond House. John (left) is an award-winning writer of fiction and poetry. John is the winner of the 2011 HEART Poetry Award, and finalist for the Pushcart, Rumi, and The Pinch Poetry Prizes.

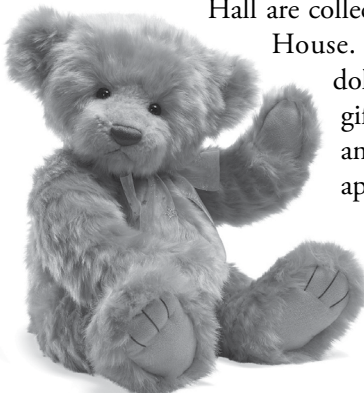

Toy Drive in full swing at Library, City Hall

This Holiday Season the Ledding Library and City Hall are collecting toys for Milwaukie's less fortunate children.

Those interested in donating to this cause, are asked to drop off a new, unwrapped toy at the front desk of Ledding Library or City Hall before Dec. 24th.

Toys collected at the Library will be distributed to local elementary schools and the Annie Ross House, the emergency family shelter located in Milwaukie. The toys gathered at City Hall are collected especially for the Annie Ross House. The most popular presents are dolls, cars, Legos, board games and gifts related to arts and crafts. Any and all gifts, however, will be greatly appreciated.

For more information, please contact Library Circulation Supervisor Nancy Wittig at 503-786-7582 or Program Services Coordinator Beth Rigel at 503-786-7568.

Catch the last ride of year

The last Bike Milwaukie ride of the season will take place on Sun., Dec. 15th at 9:30 a.m. Riders will meet at Milwaukie City Hall before heading up to Oaks Park via the Springwater Trail, through Sellwood, heading up to OMSI.

Riders will stop there to take a look at the construction of the new bridge being built over the Willamette River that will carry cyclists, pedestrians, and the Portland/Milwaukie Light Rail when it's completed in 2015.

Riders should bring a coffee mug, as organizers will have warm drinks to enjoy at OMSI, as they've done the past two years!

The ride is expected to take two to three hours - riders should dress warmly!

Center has Holiday cheer

Come get your fill of holiday cheer with the Milwaukie Center Jammers ukulele group, the Milwaukie Center Singers and the Dickens Carolers on Tues., Dec. 10th, from 1:30-3 p.m.

New to this year's celebration - wear your nicest, ugliest, newest, oldest or favorite Holiday sweater. Help Clackamas Fire District #1 with their "Operation Santa Claus" by bringing non-perishable food or a new toy.

Refreshments will be served and if Santa is not too busy, he and Mrs. Claus will stop by too.

This event is sponsored by the Friends of the Milwaukie Center.

City Council continues honoring MHS students

Since 2004 City Council has recognized more than 50 talented and dedicated Milwaukie High School students who have not only excelled academically, but have been model citizens for our City.

At the Nov. 19th meeting Stephanie Wright was recognized with the Outstanding Student Achievement Award.

To see past recipients of the Milwaukie High School Student of the Month, please visit <http://www.MilwaukieOregon.gov/citycouncil/oustanding-student-achievement-award> on the City's website.

Each Neighborhood Association has a Land Use Chair monitoring applications the City receives. To help track the process, these are upcoming Land Use/Development Review hearings, and Planning Commission (PC) Agenda items. Dates are subject to change. Check the City's website for details.

I can't believe 2013 is almost over. It seems like it just started! As I reflect on the year, I would like to think that Milwaukie is moving forward.

The Orange Line construction is in full-swing, the Waterfront is getting done, bit by bit, committees are working to make our Downtown more vibrant and attractive, and our Neighborhood District Associations (NDA's) are still thriving.

I think sometimes about what it would be like if Milwaukie didn't have NDA's. First off, I would have more time on my hands! However, I also wouldn't know any of the City staff, anything about what is going on ever in the City (or County!), nor would I know any of the wonderful, passionately-involved neighbors found all over Milwaukie. I also have something that is very hard to find: a powerful voice backed by others, that helps make our City a great place to live.

With the City funds we receive (and fund-raisers), some of our NDA's sponsor free concerts; others free Movies in the Park. Lake Road NDA has helped our High School purchase band uniforms, helped fund a new track, and sponsored Milwaukie Daze and 9K for K9 events. Our grant funds even helped the City purchase another park in our Neighborhood! It really is ... amazing.

I remain proud and honored to be the Lake Road NDA Chair.

The winter is upon us, but the weather sure hasn't stopped our own Campbell Community Garden. Gardeners have continued to plant fall and winter crops, which have continued to be donated at a fast clip.

We should have donated over 1,500 pounds of produce by the end of the season! That's almost the weight of a Mini Cooper! The Community Garden also entered the City arts committee's Scarecrow Contest this year, and won first prize for a group entry. Congratulations, gardeners!

Bike Milwaukie had a tour of Portland's "Forest for the Trees" mural project last month, anticipating the possible code changes that are being worked on by the City Council and Milwaukie's arts committee, artMOB. Bike Milwaukie does one ride each month on a Sunday, and promises to go at the pace of any rider. Check out their website for information on upcoming rides (and Page 5), and check out artMOB's site to keep up to date on mural code changes.

As the winter months continue to come, that means many of us are commuting home from work after dark. Be sure to keep your speed down and your eyes out for pedestrians and cyclists, as we all share the blacktop in many parts of our Neighborhood.

Lastly, please feel welcome at our monthly Neighborhood meetings. Happy Holidays from your HCNDA!

We are happy to tell you that our City Council took a welcome step recently and granted Neighborhoods the right to develop their own Traffic Management Plans.

Our Dec. 9th meeting will be the start of that planning. Our plan will enable us to have a well-considered position when we speak at development hearings on city traffic related proposals.

"Traffic" includes: sidewalks, bikes, pedestrians, vehicles and street designs, widths and functions. Sidewalk and street designs have dramatically changed. (note light rail & train related changes!)

Please let us know if you are interested and want to join the discussion and planning.

PET-LOVERS - Our other December meeting item will be a special presentation by a fellow dog lover, officer Ulli Neitch of our Police Department. She will talk about community emergencies, including take-home material for emergency animal medical care and do demos. She is a go-to person for animal rescues locally and nationally. It will be interesting!

In the Holiday mood, we will have special refreshments and will accept unwrapped toys for children up to age 12, and/or non-perishable foods.

BY ZAG PERRY, COCHAIR

We had another great meeting discussing several upcoming events both in your Neighborhood and the surrounding community. Linwood School's Winter Festival will be held Sat., Dec. 7th, as will Milwaukie's Umbrella Parade and Tree Lighting Ceremony. The Winter Solstice Bonfire and Christmas Ships Viewing takes place Sat., Dec. 14th.

Our Public Safety Advisory Committee representative, Don Wiley, let us know that there is a need this holiday season for bike donations (preferably kid-sized). Last year PSAC partnered with Milwaukie Police to organize the 'Bike Give-Away Program'.

Take a used or new bike to the Milwaukie police station on Harrison and 32nd. These bikes are fixed up and given to a local child in need. This would be a great time to get rid of that old bike that's been just sitting around in your garage, basement or carport and make it more useful. And because PSAC is considered a 501(c)(3), your donation of any kind is tax deductible. Linwood neighbors decided at our last meeting to give $500 to this program, to help them with this costly endeavor.

Also, the holiday season is upon us and it brings more mail deliveries, friends and family visiting, and neighbors going out of town. Keep an eye out - if something seems strange or suspicious, don't ignore it, report it. Call the non-emergency number at 503-786-7500.

Looking forward to seeing you on Dec. 12th, 7 p.m. at Linwood Elementary.

Our own little pocket of the world has been busy, as drivers on 99 may have noticed - the positioning of girders has intermittently closed 22nd Ave. and other local streets. We're all looking forward to the end of road closures; it's a little hard to see the forest for the trees sometimes with nighttime weekday construction noise in areas already hard-hit by everyday impacts. With any luck, TriMet will be done early again this time too.

Our other main focus in the neighborhood, Kellogg Plant odor resolution, is incrementally making progress. A recent study produced some options for WES and the Kellogg Good Neighbor Committee to discuss that could cap or limit some of the unwelcome odors that waft around town.

The holiday season is upon us and I, for one, am really looking forward to the Winter Solstice bonfire event held Dec. 14th from 4:30-6:30 p.m. at Riverfront Park. Our Neighborhood will be hosting the concession stand and offering coffee, hot cocoa, hot dogs, and pie for sale.

This is a really fun event and a very important fund raiser for our Neighborhood as the proceeds go towards covering the cost of our summer Music in the Park concert series. We are still accepting pie donations so let me know if you want donate a pie.

During our last meeting I shared the story of my tour of the Wichita Center for Family and Community. We learned about this great community resource working to help the children and families of North Clackamas in need with clothing, food, school supplies, mentoring and so much more. As we have an ongoing discussion about how the NDA and individual neighbors can support the Center I would encourage everyone to explore ways you can volunteer or donate.

At our December meeting we will decide which road the Neighborhood will adopt, finalize plans for our concession booth at the Winter Solstice bonfire, review land use planning activities along Logus Road, and continue the discussion of how to help our kids and families that are struggling. If you cannot attend but want to get added to our email distribution list, contact me at trottenalong@hotmail.com. Your email address will not be shared and communications are kept to a minimum.
