An Ordinance providing for the regulation of persons, firms or corporations engaged in transporting persons for hire, and repealing conflicting ordinance provisions.

On and after the first day of May, 1942, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to operate busses or other vehicles upon the streets, roadways, alleys or other public thoroughfares of Milwaukie, which are maintained and controlled by Milwaukie, for the transportation of persons for hire without first having secured a permit from the City Council.

Section 2. An applicant for a permit under the provisions of Section 1 hereof shall pay a fee of $2.50 upon the making of the application, the said fee to cover the cost of the issuance of the permit.

Section 3. The City Council may in the interests of the public safety designate in the permit, or by amendment to the permit, the routes to be traveled by the permittee, and may from time to time change the same, likewise upon consideration of the public safety. Section 4. The City Council may in the interests of the public safety require of any permittee hereunder that the said permittee load and unload passengers at certain designated points in the City, or it may forbid the loading or unloading of passengers at certain designated points, upon considerations of the public safety. siderations of the public safety.

Section 5. Upon application being made to it, the City Council may reserve certain portions of the street surfaces for the loading or unloading of passengers. Such reserved portions shall be for the exclusive use of the permittee or permittees and shall be so marked and designated by the City at its cost and expense. In order that the expense of policing said reserved portions or zones may be met, each permittee using such a reserved portion or zone or reserved portions or zones shall pay to the City the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per year, said sum to be paid on or before the first day of May of each year, subsequent to the passage of this Ordinance.

Section 6. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to a fine, upon conviction thereof, of not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00). Each day that a violation of this ordinance continues shall be considered a separate offense.
