WHEREAS the Oregon State Legislature incorporated the Town of Milwaukie on May 21, 1903, after years of organized community action that sought to seek local control of the area’s infrastructure and shared spaces, and

WHEREAS on April 27, 1952, a plaque was placed by the Susannah Lee Barlow Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Milwaukie’s first mayor, William Shindler, to mark the location of the then-largest native Pacific Dogwood in the United States, which stood at 65-feet in height and 7-feet in circumference, and

WHEREAS on July 9, 1962, the City Council designated the Pacific Dogwood as the city’s official flower and “The Dogwood City of the West” as the city’s nickname, and

WHEREAS the people of Milwaukie continue to appreciate the Pacific Dogwood and other Dogwood species by planting them in yards, parks, and shared spaces, and

WHEREAS, by designating May 21st as Dogwood Day, Milwaukie continues to recognize the beauty of the Dogwood blossom as an emblem of our shared commitment to the earth and to each other.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lisa Batey, Mayor of the City of Milwaukie, a municipal corporation in the County of Clackamas, in the State of Oregon, do hereby proclaim MAY 21, 2024, to be DOGWOOD DAY in Milwaukie, The Dogwood City of the West.
