

The Friends of the Ledding Library is selling books (and more!) . . .

When: Sundays through October (weather permitting) from 9:30 am to 2 pm in conjunction with the Sunday Farmer's Market.

Where: Volunteers will be waiting to sell you books you'll love next to the amphitheater at the north end of the Ledding Library building, 10660 SE 21st Ave., Milwaukie, OR 97222.

Why: Sales of donated books benefit library programs and purchases. From early readers to teens and adults, the library serves all our community. You can help by purchasing books — and by joining Friends or volunteering.

You can join Friends and find out about volunteering at the Ledding Library.
