

2024 Daylight Book Club Reading List

We meet on the first Thursday of each month at 11am in the Ledding Library. All are welcome! Questions? Contact Christine at mackiec@milwaukieoregon.gov or 503.786.7539.

January 4, 2024: I Capture the Castle by Dodie Smith

Through six turbulent months of 1934, a teenaged writer fills three notebooks with sharply funny yet poignant entries about her home, a ruined Suffolk castle, and her eccentric and penniless family.

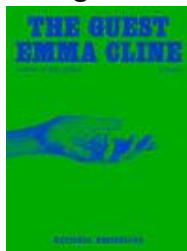

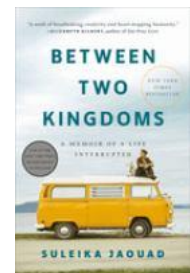

February 1, 2024: Inland: A Novel by Téa Obreht

Set in the lawless, drought-ridden lands of the Arizona Territory in 1893, this is the extraordinary story of an unflinching frontierswoman, her troubled youngest son, a mysterious beast, and an outlaw who can see spirits.

March 7, 2024: Between Two Kingdoms: A Memoir of a Life Interrupted by Suleika Jaouad

A writer describes her harrowing fight against leukemia and how she learned to live again after her recovery.

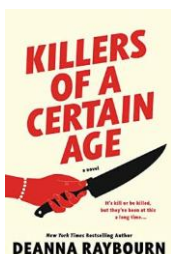

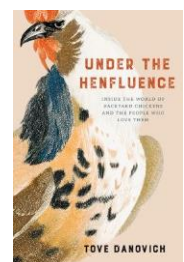

April 4, 2024: The Guest: A Novel by Emma Cline

A young woman causes chaos and pretends to be someone she isn't in this spellbinding novel set in the rarified world of Long Island over Labor Day.

May 2, 2024: Under the Henfluence: Inside the World of Backyard Chickens and the People Who Love Them by Tove Danovich

This heartwarming memoir shows how the author learned to love and respect the humble chicken, and the results of her investigations into the history, politics, nature, and personalities of chickens.

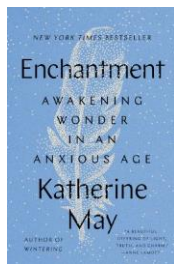

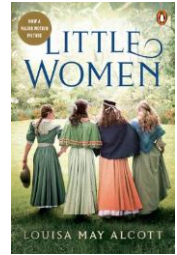

June 6, 2024: Killers of a Certain Age by Deanna Raybourn

Can deadly international assassins simply retire to live out their lives in peace? Not likely. But these four women are not exactly defenseless, and they don't take kindly to being targeted by their former employers.

No Book Club in July

August 1, 2024: Little Women by Louisa May Alcott

Chronicles the joys and sorrows of the four March sisters as they grow up in mid-19th-century New England.

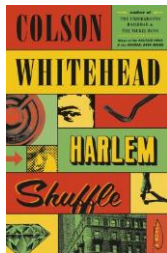

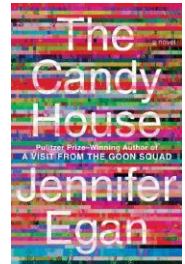

September 5, 2024: Enchantment: Awakening Wonder in an Anxious Age by Katherine May

An invitation to reawaken our innate sense of wonder and reconnect with the natural world.

October 3, 2024: The Candy House by Jennifer Egan

In this uniquely structured novel, a brilliant tech genius invents a technology that allows users to download, access, and even share their memories. What could go wrong?

November 7, 2024: Harlem Shuffle by Colson Whitehead

A family saga, a crime novel, a hilarious morality play, a social novel about race and power, and ultimately a love letter to Harlem in the 1960s.

December 5, 2024: A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens

A heartless miser learns the meaning of Christmas with the help of three ghostly visitors.

