  - Historic Donwton has concerns about the crossing at Washington – striping needs a refresh – Chuck Eaton to follow up, is probably already scheduled for back to school.
  - Lake Road emailed a request to discuss police/community relations. The group reflected on the national conversation about policing generally, and discussed the relatively good community policing in Milwaukie. Milwaukie does not have a citizen review board; complaints are investigated internally and problems elevated to District Attorney. PSAC will continue to be a conduit between the community and police.
